Garage Sale July 29, 30 and 31: In conjunction with the Downtown Arts and Crafts Festival St. Paul's will again hold a garage sale. And we need everyone's help to make this a success. Here's what you can do: Clean out your closets, garage, attic, etc. and bring us your stuff now. We are not interested in crutches, golf clubs, coffee pots or any items that are broken or don't work or are very dirty.

(Throw real junk away!)

Note: If you have some really "nice" things, we will save those for a silent auction that we will hold with our fall fund raiser.

Important note: Due to staffing constraints we are not able to pick up your contributions. You must make arrangements to get things to St. Paul's no later than Sunday July 24.

Sign up to help sort (Monday July 25—Thursday July 28) and/or to sell (Friday July 29-Sunday July 31.)

There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the back of the church.

Come to the sale and buy new stuff! We will be open Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day. If you have questions, suggestions, comments please talk with Betsy Elkins 446-8362.

ESSENTIAL NEEDS BASKET

You may have noticed Deacon Jane carrying the Essential Needs Basket during the recessional after the 10:00 am service. Where is she going with these items? Directly down to the Samaritan Center! The items you bring in; shampoo, bath soap, hand sanitizer, combs, toothbrushes, toothpaste, band-aids, white cotton socks, all these items go to the guests at the Samaritan Center. What is especially appreciated are travel size items as well. When someone is living out of a back pack, these are handy to carry. Next time you go grocery shopping and pick up these items for yourself, pick up one more and place it in the basket in the back of the Cathedral, near the ushers. Know you have made someone's life a bit more pleasant! THANK YOU!

This is the last Sunday that we will have a service leaflet prepared by Jonathan Howell, who has served as Office Coordinator since November of 2005. As Jon leaves St. Paul's to pursue his career as a singer we wish him well, and look forward to great things to come! Jon's successor is Amrey (AIM-ree) Farrario and she will be working all day on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

You may reach Amrey at offices@saintpaulscathedral.org

Open Cathedral July 29, 30 and 31: The Cathedral will again be open during the Arts and Crafts Festival for folks to stop by to rest, have a glass of water and look around. There will be a sign up sheet available to indicate when you would be able to be a host for the Cathedral during this time. Laurie Sanderson (446-6720) is coordinating this effort.

Continental Breakfast for Vendors, July 30 and 31: During the Arts and Crafts Festival we will be providing a continental breakfast between 8 and 10 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday for vendors who are downtown early setting up their booths. Consider signing up to help with this. D.J. Igelsrud is coordinating the breakfast (559-1205)

Attention All Women – The annual St. Paul’s women’s retreat will be held at St. Margaret’s House in New Hartford, New York, October 14th through 16th. Stay tuned for more details! We are happy to announce that the Reverend Marilyn Sanders of Bainbridge will be our retreat leader. Please stay tuned for more information. Remember to save the dates Friday October 14th thru October 16th.

Feminist Theology—This year, the Feminist Theology reading group will continue to meet through the summer, with some change of date, time and location. We will meet the second Tuesday of the month at 7 PM, Tuesday, July 12th and Tuesday, August 9th. We will meet at the home of Kellie Meloling, 300 East Avenue, Minoa, New York, 13116. We will be looking at the books in the Old Testament, First Kings and Second Kings. All are welcome. If you have a question or would like a ride, please call Laurie Sanderson at 420 1518.

Parking – Parking for Sunday Services is available and free in both the lot directly next to the church on Fayette St. as well as the Key Bank lot across the street from the main entrance on Fayette St. (the Key Bank lot is often not available during downtown festivals and other special events)

Lay Schedule—there are still some spots needed for Hospitality. Sign up in the book in the back of the church.
